We're Looking For You!

Get Ready for the World

The world is coming to #RVA in September of 2015 for the UCI Road World Championships and this May the nation's best collegiate cyclists will descend upon the River City for the 2014 USA Cycling Collegiate Road Nationals.

Best Seat in the House

One of the "best seats in the house" is literally on the race route, assisting race organizers as a Course Marshal. No experience as a Course Marshal? No problem, we'll get you trained for Collegiate Nationals so you'll be an "ole pro" by the time the Road World Championships comes around in 2015.
